

230,000, ten thousand of which Mrs. St. Clair is to have. The others are chosen and work is soon to be commenced. We learn by the way, that Mr. N. T. Basilek's mine, at Ash Point, shows well and indicates rich mineral.

Rev. W. C. Barrett, of Rockland, preached at the Baptist church last Sunday, to the entire satisfaction of all who heard him. We hope he may favor us again at no distant day.

Mrs. M. Ella Potter, of Colorado, is in town, visiting her sister, Mrs. Geo. Hayden. She is a native of this place, and was given with the region agrees with her.

Mr. Simon Graves, agent of "Grade School District," is making needed repairs and alterations upon the Westbrook schoolhouse, and is also building a shed for fuel, etc.

We understand that Mr. B. H. Clay is about to move to Hallowell, where he is to engage in the same business that he is now in, "drummer" for the Rockwell Granite Company. We wish him much success.

THOMASTON.
James H. Rivers, Esq., now in his 83d year, came very near being drowned near the Railroad bridge, one day last week. He went down to a wharf in this locality, and seeing a boat there he got into it, and pushed off into the stream for the purpose of fishing. The boat, however, was under him, and he was in "water over his head."

Fortunately there was a broken pier near the wharf which he immediately grasped and saved himself. Mr. Rivers had on a heavy overcoat, which encumbered him very much, and when he attempted to reach the shore caused him to sink. His only safety was found in clinging to the broken pier. He called loudly for help on the workmen engaged at the pier, and Mr. Rivers, who was very old and nearly blind, and in a short time must have become exhausted.

On Sunday night about 11 o'clock, the citizens of this village were aroused by the ringing of the Baptist church bell, and as each came running along, rubbing their eyes, they eagerly inquired where the alarm was given. They found that they were not summoned out to a fire, but to hunt up two runaway boys, Kendrick Robinson, son of John O. Robinson, Esq., and Lonnie Atkins, son of Mr. F. A. Atkins, both of whom had been missing since two o'clock in the afternoon, and were last seen on Hallowell street, near the wharf. A consultation was held, and messengers sent in every direction. In a little while it was found they went up on the railroad track towards Warren. About one o'clock, or a little later, they were found standing close by the railroad track, apparently, not only of the frantic race of the parents, at the house of Mr. Atkins' brother, near the upper falls in Warren. Mr. Fred C. O'Brien was the messenger who found these boys, and brought them home. These transpired did not seem to realize the anxiety which they caused their parents.

Mr. Adelbert Lermont, it is reported, has purchased the house formerly occupied by the late Ambrose Lermont, as a residence, in rear of the Congregational church.

Capt. B. J. Henry, master of ship Corsica, is among the late arrivals of our ship masters now at home. His ship is in New York, loading oil for London.

Capt. Robert Crosby, one of Thomaston's excellent master mariners, was united in marriage on Monday last, to Mrs. Rebecca Stearns, near the residence of her father, on Grand Street, East.

They left on the train that day for New York with the kind wishes of their many friends, for their future happiness. The bark Nicholas T. Taylor, of which Capt. Crosby is master, is loading in New York for Java.

During the heavy hail yesterday forenoon, about 11 o'clock, the barge Fairy broke away from her moorings near Cowardin's mill, and running down stream rapidly, struck the wharf built on, moored opposite Cushing & Co.'s wharf, broke the wharf's timbers, and carried her away from her moorings, both large and yacht going along swiftly across the bay. Alfred C. Strout and Robert Simmons got into a boat and went after the barge, and they say that the wind blew furiously, and that the spray from the breaking waves wet them through. They succeeded in securing the barge by anchoring them in the bay. They then attempted to row back against the wind, but were obliged to give up. Leaving the boat behind, they made land tracks for home.

The Belfast Journal says that the late Hon. James C. Madison, of Hallowell, practiced law in Rockland years ago. Such is not the fact. Mr. Madison first commenced the practice of law in Thomaston, in company with Hon. Lucius H. Chandler, a native of Belfast, who died in New York, Va., some two years since, and was one of the foremost lawyers in that State.

Samuel Watt's & Co. are repairing schooner Mary A. Power at Cushing & Co.'s wharf. At the same wharf schooner Telegraph is having a new mainmast put on.

Mr. Samuel F. Robinson, one of our most active young men and best sailors, has opened a merchant tailoring establishment in Belfast. We regret to lose Mr. R. from among our local men, but we can assure the citizens of that city that he is a first-class tailor and a downright good fellow.

A monument is soon to be erected in the village cemetery at Rockland, in memory of John Holmes, near the spot where the remains of his first wife and son were buried. This is a monument proper, as he spent the greater portion of his life, and achieved his highest honors at the bar, and at the forum. During the latter part of his life he resided at Thomaston, having married as a second wife a daughter of Major General Henry Holmes, distinguished as an officer of the revolutionary war, and as a member of President Washington's cabinet. Mr. Holmes died in Thomaston, July 17, 1842, while holding the position of United States District Attorney. He was buried at Thomaston, and the spot where his remains cannot now be identified. That one so distinguished as a citizen, and so patriotic a man, should have laid his last resting place and commensurate his memory to his country, is a noble example to himself as being his descendants.—Portland Times.

The Argus is mistaken when Mr. Holmes being buried in Thomaston. If he had been buried here his remains would have been placed in the receiving vault of the Knox tomb, and his name would have been placed on the Knox monument, but such is not the fact. Furthermore, none of our citizens recollect Mr. Holmes remains being brought here for interment.

The late Judge Goodenow, of Alfred, a number of years since, in company with Judge Levensaler, visited Gen. Knox's tomb, and stated at that time that Mr. Holmes was buried in Alfred beside his first wife.

UNION.
We learn that copper has been discovered in this town. Several business changes are to be anticipated. The Post-office will be moved next week.

ROCKPORT.
Rev. C. B. Besse gave his lecture, "Jack and Jill," at the Methodist Church of this place, on the evening of the 27th, to a large audience. The lecture is able and eloquent, and was given with the speaker's usual force.

A Wise Deacon.
"Deacon Wilder, I want you to tell me how you keep yourself and family well the past season, when all the rest of us have been sick so much, and have had the doctors visit us so often." "Bro. Taylor the answer is very easy," used Hop Bitters in time; kept my family well and healthy, and I am able to work all the time. I'll warrant it has cost you and the neighbors one to two hundred dollars apiece to keep sick the same time."

"Deacon, I'll use your medicine hereafter." 29-47
